

FIRESIDE SERIES

Ojibway Songs, Stories & Drum Circle

Ron Kanutski, Little Medicine Wheel Cloud, Bear Clan

Saturday, November 15, 2014 2:00pm

Bring your hand drum or rattle and join us in sharing songs, stories and teachings of the Ojibway (Anishinaabe) people to promote healing and good life.

Ron Kanutski is tribal member of the Lake Helen Reserve/Red Rock Band (Obijwanong). He currently resides in Thunder Bay, Ontario, Canada with his family of six and is the sole proprietor of With Care Consulting for the past 14 years. Ron actively works in the mental health and addictions field as a consultant, group facilitator, counselor, college professor, trainer, healer & cultural teacher.

As a cultural teacher and facilitator, he has worked extensively throughout Ontario, Manitoba, Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota and Illinois. Ron has spent time with Elders of the Woodland tradition and enjoys sharing those teachings to people of all cultures.

Join us for this fun afternoon filled with teachings and tradition.

Light refreshments will follow the presentation.

Advance Ticket Price $20.

Midwest SOARRING members $15 with membership card.

Buy advance tickets at <http://www.midwestsoaring.org/calendar.html>

Tickets at the door $25. Sorry no refunds. Limited seats.

For more info call 708.257.4300.

Midwest SOARRING
Native American Cultural Center
1 Hickory Lane
Westchester, IL 60154

708.257.4300
msf@midwestsoaring.org
www.midwestsoaring.org

Midwest SOARRING
FOUNDATION